

ENERGAIA 2009

December 9 - 12, 2009

Montpellier / France

PROGRAMME OF THE GERMAN DAY

December 10, 2009

German Pavilion
Hall 6 - Booth L600

10.00 am Towards a sustainable economy - German experiences in the fields of energy efficiency and renewable energies – opportunities for France
Consultant: Johann Eimannsberger
Berliner Energieagentur GmbH
Discussion

Renewable energies

11.00 am The geothermal market is booming – ideas and chances for France
Speaker: Werner Bußmann
Geothermische Vereinigung e.V.
Discussion

12.00 pm Biomass: regional concepts and innovative technologies in french regions, the key to sustainable success
Speaker: Rolf-Dieter Linden
Denaro Energiesysteme GmbH
Discussion

01.00 pm Reception of the Consulate General of the Federal Republic of Germany

03.00 pm Comparison of French and German PV market developments
Speaker: Christoph Urbschat
Eclareon
Discussion

Energy Efficiency

04.00 pm Opportunities of the exploitation of the not yet utilized potential for improvement of energy efficiency in buildings in Mediterranean and African regions with help of the flexible mechanisms of the Kyoto Protocol and other voluntary models like GS-VER or VCS through investors from France and the EU
Speaker: Kurt Seidel
TÜV Rheinland Group Köln
Discussion

05.00 pm Promoting Energy Efficiency in France: Towards a Sustainable Energy Future
Speaker: Prof. Dr. Hartmut Grewe
Konrad Adenauer Stiftung
Discussion